

Ritz Theater Opens In Ybor Thursday

The Casino Enterprise, Inc., announced this morning that the Ritz theater, Fifteenth street and Seventh avenue, which has been completely remodeled at an approximate cost of $30,000, will be opened Tuesday night at 6 o'clock. This theater was formerly the Rivoli.

A special program will be presented on the opening night. Cuban rumba music will be played by the Royal Sexteto. The Royal Vanities, composed of 25 juvenile players, will also entertain. The vanities are under the direction of Norman Kirkconnel.

Charles Kirkconnel, who is manager of the Royal theater of West Tampa, will assume the manager-ship of the Ritz theater next week.
