

THE EDINBURGH EVENING NEWS

TUESDAY, MAY 10, 1927

An Artistic Drop Screen.

A very attractive new drop screen was in use at the King's Theatre last night. It depicts Mary Queen of Scots viewing a procession and tournament from Greenside Bracs [sic]. The screen, which was designed by Miss Caird, daughter of the late Professor Caird, is an artistic and strikingly attractive piece of work.