WEST COAST THEATRES
WEST COAST NORTHPARK

N the heart of San Diego's North Park district, on University avenue at Twenty-ninth street, the West Coast Theatres, Inc., have located their fourth local motion picture theatre . . . and the FIRST San Diego playhouse to be specifically designed and constructed, from the ground up, for the showing of TALKING PICTURES.

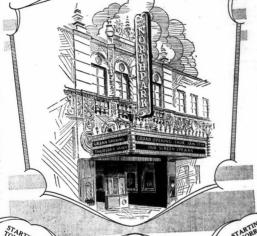

It is a beautiful theatre. It is a modern theatre. It is comfortable, hastefully decorated, beautifully appointed. All the physical properties and material accoutrements which make for comfort and ease are embodied in the theatre's design. But that is not all

At its formal opening tonight, the new West Coast North Park Theatre becomes an integral part of the com-munity which it serves. It takes its place in the civic life of the district. It enters upon what promises to be a long era of service, and, as is the case of every sister theatre in the great William Fox organization, this new playhouse is unreservedly committed to a program of wholesome and worth-while screen entertainment

ONIGHT'S opening program promises a variety of screen and stage entertainment seldom — and stage entertainment seldom encountered in a community play-house . . At 6 p. m. the doors of the new theatre will be opened, and at 6:30 the formal dedicatory program will start There will be an organ recital by General admission, 30 cents; loges, 40 cents; children, 10 cents.

SPEAKING SCREEN FIRST ALL TALKING OUTDOOR PICTURE

HE significance of the West Coast trademark in the entertainment field has become identified with all that stands for wholesome amusement. In San Diego, the four modern West Coast Thearres mentioned on this page signal four-square for intelligent entertainment programs. Each theatre holds to the one West Coast standard of presentation.... and together, the quartet of playhouses provides San Diego with the finest screen and stage divertissement which can be secured . . .

THE West Coast New California screen speaks; tomorrow the newly installed equipment at the West Coast Cabrillo Theatre will usber in a "talkie" policy at that house the new West Coast North Park Theatre has been specially designed and constructed for the showing of sound, synchroided and talking productions—and the Faltmount setem will not long remain rated and talking productions—and the Faltmount setem will not long remain termination to give to San Diego 100 percent voice-and-vision screen facilities ... an aim quit in line with the tremendous advances which are being made in the motion picture industry
