Austin's Beautiful Symbol of Progress

Tonight at 6:30 ...

Dedicated and built with the sincere desire of presenting the best in entertainment to the people of Austin and Central Texas, the new PARAMOUNT THEATRE offers its inaugural performance tonight at 6:30.

Those who are responsible for its creation hold this thought uppermost for its future. That it be more than a building of average commercial importance—that it be an artistic center of pleasure and amusement where the people of Austin and Central Texas will find new joys and new cheer.

The PARAMOUNT and Public Theatres will earnestly strive to serve the public of this community in every need for relaxation and entertainment and only when that service is commensurate with the physical form and equipment that has gone into the building of this institution, will its mission be fulfilled. The attainment of that objective is constantly before us, this week, next week, every week!
