THE GARDEN OF EARTHLY DELIGHTS

"IT REACHES TOWARD ECSTASY!"

Mel Gussow, The New York Times

"WONDERFUL, HYPNOTIC!
ON THE WAY HOME YOU'LL PROBABLY FEEL LIKE FLYING!"

Michael Feingold, The Village Voice

Inspired by Hieronymus Bosch's medieval triptych, The Garden of Earthly Delights is a haunting blend of theatre, music, and dance which explores the soaring ecstasy and fleeting innocence of Eden, the sensual excesses of the Seven Deadly Sins, and the naked terror of Hell.

THE GOSPEL AT COLONUS

Presented in association with
Some Serious Business, Inc.

"IT'S A THEATRICAL WONDER!"

Edith Oliver, The New Yorker

"IT IS A WORK OF EXHILARATING BEAUTY!"

Mel Gussow, The New York Times

Composer Bob Telson and director Lee Breuer have molded the text of Greek tragedy to the full-voiced beauty of gospel music and used an ensemble of over forty voices to create a work with the power of opera and the charged excitement of rock.
