

A NEW HOME FOR THE LYRIC—The Kansas City Lyric theater will present its 1968 fall season of repertory in the Uptown theater at Thirty-seventh street and Broadway. The Lyric's 11th season will consist of four operas, played five times weekly between September 17 and October 12. Shown signing the lease for the house are (left to right) Joe Ruddick, district manager for Fox Midwest Theaters; Jack Paikowski, Lyric business manager, and Michael Berbiglia, chairman of the Lyric board.
